Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from New Missionary Field: A Report to the Female Missionary Society for the Poor of the City of New-York and Its Vicinity; At Their Quarterly Prayer Meeting, March 1817 In compliance with the wishes of the Board of Managers and others, I have drawn up, and shall now lay before you, an account of my labours, accompanied with such observations as the nature and the importance of the subject seem to require. It is about nine months since I first engaged in the service of the Society. Having had some previous knowledge of the state of the poor, and being fully persuaded, that hundreds of families were destitute of the Bible, as well as of all other means of religious instruction, I determined to devote a considerable part of my time to exploring sections of the city, for the purpose of obtaining further information concerning them, of distributing Bibles and Tracts, and of promoting their spiritual welfare in other ways. By this means, I have had opportunity to address, on the most important subjects of religion,...
