The leaves are alphabetically indexed, giving space for almost 300 names. THE PERSONAL EQUATION (Continued from Page 127) held, whether collections are too slow or too aggressive as compared with other periods. It serves in production for control of various activities. The same is true in administration and in sales. All performances may then be combined into one composite result. Handling Reports Reports are a means of keeping management informed. They show the needs of improvement in methods or equipment. They should be written and signed by you, and presented to immediate supervisor, and with a copy for yourself and one for the general management to be delivered at once, or in some cases, held for later presentation. Here is the place where you can make all the cost of records and statistics pay dividends. Here is where you can perform a valuable service for your firm. You may also help yourself by cutting expenses, by improving equipment, by providing means of controlling operation cost, by tying up your facts with those of other departments. These assist in developing workers. These produce economies and appreciation of the management. The files, centralized, are a means of information as to operations, and reports from this source may be made valuable in management. If you are doing work of this kind, you are going up, and you are likely to be asked to use the same ideas and methods in a larger field. The report must...
