Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Committee on Medical Topography, Meteorology, Endemics: Made to the Medical Society of the State of California at the Annual Session, Held at San Francisco, in April, 1883, Forest Preservation and Timber Cultivation Mr. President and Members Of The Medical Society Of The State Of California: After the earth had performed its annual cycle for an incomputable period, during the cooling off process, the mighty convulsions of conflicting elements, the gradual formation of soil upon its surface, the development of herb and fruit, and of animal life adapted to his uses and control, then was man created, or, as Mr. Darwin would say, developed, and given dominion over every living thing that moveth upon the earth; and the first commandment received from his Creator was: Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth, and subdue it. And as we examine through the pages of history, whether among the nations who have been conversant with the Sacred Law and Record, or of those who were unacquainted with the Hebraic and Christian systems, we find that the highest physical development, the farthest advance in civilization, and the greatest national power have been attained by those branches of the race who have appeared to be most earnest in carrying out the original injunction. And of the leading men and great thinkers of all ages, those who have been most venerated and who have earned and received most of the enduring gratitude of their fellow-men, have either been discoverers of additional resources, or organizers of movements in the same general direction of accumulation and advancement; and at this period of human existence no one who claims to...
