

Rabbit Teeth (Paperback)

By John Steel

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In form and scope, Rabbit Teeth is a novel that both challenges and surprises and does what any good novel should do: it forces us to question who we are. It is an investigation into the nature of shared human experience and the feelings that elevate and sadden us. It is a serious book, deeply wise and soulful that feels entirely relevant to the uncertainty of the present moment. It is psychologically rich and consistently thought provoking novel that is compelling and difficult to put down. Rabbit Teeth is a unique and captivating work that occupies a fictional space dense with poignant in the everyday and the bleak loss of its passing. It is a tightly written, moving and exciting work of fiction that comes to mean more than the sum of its parts as the narrative carries us with an irresistible momentum to a moving and surprising ending. The story acquires resonance as the lives of the characters echo and overlap and begin to present a mesmerizing portrait of how the events in our lives change us...
