SportsBooks Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Memories of George Best, Christopher Hilton, Ian Cole, Two years after his death mystery still surrounds the creative and destructive forces which ruled George Best - the man who, many good judges insist, was the greatest footballer of all time anywhere. Those forces are explored in this unique, penetrating new book using the words of people who knew him throughout his life. Memories of George Best gathers the candid experiences of a host of friends and enemies, team-mates and opponents, journalists who lived it with him, celebrities and fans. Here the creative forces live again in the glorious games, captured through the words of those who played in them. Here are mighty Benfica humbled and little Northampton Town mesmerised. Here is the strange excursion to play for a Jewish team in South Africa and the North American adventure where Best scored what he considered his greatest goal. Here, too, is the sadness when he constantly ran away from problems, became a mercenary player and ultimately a doomed alcoholic. There is a full examination of his extraordinary sexual attraction and how he gave it full rein and how as a young man he became so famous so fast that he was called The Fifth Beatle. The book is co-authored by Christopher Hilton, formerly of the Daily Express and an acclaimed writer of sports books, and Ian Cole of the Daily Mail, a lifelong football follower and respected expert on the game. They say: 'We have gone to the people who really know to unlock the mystery of this genuinely amazing human being. It involved dozens of interviews with people all over the world and we like to think we've done the unlocking.' Many of the people interviewed have contributed pictures and memorabilia -...
