It is satisfactory to state that little of a serious nature, with regard to insect pests, has come under observation, and Mr Jones remark concerning the general improvement to be noticed in the particular lines imported is worthy of consideration. Aphides are more generally observed than any other pest; the Mussel Scale (Mi/tilaspis citri) and the Black Citrus Scale Parlatoria zizyphi, Lucas) come next. No doubt, however, large numbers of minute insects will escape detection in examination, and, in order to avoid this possibility, all large consignments are now fumigated. In future I hope to have all living plants treated. GENERAL MATTERS. Of general interest, and marking a progressive step, has been the formation of the Natal Fruit Farmers Union, with its headquarters at Durban. Upon coming to Natal nothing struck me more forcibly than the entire absence of a Fruit-growers Association of any sort, and it has been a great pleasure to me to see this Union formed, because such an institution is essential to the best interests and advancement of fruit culture. The present Union, I am told, was the outcome of a meeting initiated by F. A. Pearce, now Secretary to the Union. This preliminary effort was followed by a general meeting in May last, when it was decided to form the Union. The objects of the Union, I am given to understand, are: Remedying conditions applying to the shipping and railing of fruit. Better handling,...
