Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Has anyone ever asked you to live in their world? Has anyone ever demanded that you live in theirs and lose yourself in the process? With his own aging reality steadily turning white and sterile around him, an elderly sea captain who is confined to a dreary nursing home intimidates a young Jamaican artist into bringing color back into his life. They ve made me blind and left me one small window, he confides to the girl. They ve put me into this clean white cell and are tryin to suck the life out of me. Thundering his defiance he declares, But I used to be somebody! And I ain t a sailin away all that easy for nobody! Paint me room, he orders. So begins the story of the final days of Captain Walter B. Roberts, who navigates a thin line on a course set between the facts and fiction of his adventurous life at sea. Using colorful examples from a very questionable past, he belligerently berates all around him. Can you see the world from where you be sittin now? Well, stand up! Don t be a coward! Be something, or somebody, and be it well! You ve got to live life the best way that you can, with no regrets. Fine, but what if you think you re a three-hundred-year-old pirate? Or is that just plain crazy? About the Author Other books by Ron Dull include Mount Bellew and Go With.
