I saw a need for men to obtain some instruction on how to live successful lives in society. It is about God, Jesus Christ, and the lives of men, and also deals with the old as well as the new concept of life. This highly inspirational book talks about the relationship between fathers and sons, husbands and wives, church and community. It gives instruction for men to have control, grace, and confidence, and shows them how to maintain a household. Strictly for Men lets a male know that he is the backbone of the family, and that it is necessary to always have control over his behavior. Rev. Charles E. Moore grew up in the rural town of Hope Mills, North Carolina, where religion was a very important part of his household. He now lives in Durham, a very progressive city in the state with unlimited opportunities. He is a retired Navy veteran and postal worker. Publishers website: http: sbpra....
